

Article Worldview Analysis Sheet

Worldview Diagram

Article Title:

Article Author:

Source:

Date:

Primary Worldview Categories:

Theology: What about God? What does it say about God and His nature? Does the author believe there is a God? What is He like?

Philosophy: What is real? What is true? What is the nature of reality? In the view of the author, is reality the natural world only? How do we find/recognize truth?

Biology: What about life? What does the article or author suggest about the origin of life? Is creation an option?

Psychology: What about human nature? Is man good or evil or both? What about sin? Does man have a soul and/or spirit?

Ethics: What is right? What about the problem of evil in the world? What is wrong? Why is something right or wrong?

Sociology: How should society be structured? What constitutes a good society or culture?

Law: Who makes the rules? What is the basis for law? Where do laws ultimately come from?

Politics: What about government? What is the purpose of Government? How much government do we need? Why?

Economics: What about making a living? What produces a sound economy?
What is the purpose of money? Is private property good? What is the role of work? the History: What about the past? How should we interpret human events? What constitutes a reliable historical document? Is historical fact as important as scientific fact? What is the purpose of history?